CV

Software Developer | Backend, Frontend, Full Stack

SUMMARY

I would describe myself as flexible, innovative, fast, accurate, and willing to develop. I am reliable, you can rely on me because I keep my word. I want to work for a company where I can use my skills for its development. I have grand ambitions and am looking for an exciting and meaningful everyday life. I never give up, and I love to create new things. For me, problems are just a challenge that I look forward to tackling. I am currently studying Business Application Developer and Cybersecurity Analyst. I can work full time as I study on weekends.

I have described more about the project and my experience in my portfolio chriskodehub.github.io/portfolio
